Established in the beginnings of the last century, MARAQA Interiors is a leading retailer of high end interior finishing materials and furniture for residential and contract projects.

MARAQA Interiors has been defining the interior design landscape of Jordan ever since its humble Jerusalem beginnings in 1930, when its visionary founder Saleh Yehia Maraqa.

Strengthened with more than 8 decades of Intergenerational experience and a passion for design, a devotion to customer service, and an array of international brands, MARAQA Interiors continues to provide the Hashemite Kingdom and its Neighbours with the widest and most exclusive range of decorative materials and furniture, for both residential and contract projects alike.

Today, MARAQA Interiors represents prime international brands such as B&B, ITALIA and Poliform in its large display showroom in Jordan.

A photograph of a modern dining room with a round table and chairs. The scene is dimly lit, with a large, dark, dome-shaped pendant lamp hanging over the table. On the table, there are several decorative items, including a vase with dried branches and some fruit. The background features a large, ornate door or wall panel. The overall mood is sophisticated and elegant.

ÉDITION

The French editor Camengo shares its inspirations to make your interiors alive and unique.

Unconstrained, the brand dares to use patterns and revises the essentials, colour is the driving force

Lighting

“Interiors speak! Rooms emphasize whether one exists or lives, and there is a great difference between the two.”

Van Day Truex, interior designer
